Kauff Hits for Circuit-Dodgers Win Series, Three Games to Two.

By FREDERICK G. LIEB.

It took the Dodgers quite a little time before they found the combination to beat the Giants this season. McGraw's band rolled back the Dodgers five time last spring before the Flatbush Fusileers drew first blood. But once dishow the trick was done, Uncle Robby's brave boys have fared splen-didly in their interborough warfare.

They beat the Giants again on the Polo Grounds yesterday and captured the brief series, two games out of three. The Giants fell before the Flatbush arm a score of 6 to 3. Last week in oklyn the Dodgers also took a series from Manhattan, two out of three. Where the Giants once had Brooklyn games to nothing their margin now as though he had been dropped into a vat of melted lard.

The heat must have limbered up all of Albert's stiff joints. After pitching three innings he looked as though he had been dropped into a vat of melted lard.

Albert had all his old time speed and worked a beautiful drop ball. Mamaux got eight of the Giants on strikes, including Larry Doyle twice. Kauff and Fletcher were the only regular Giants who didn't whiff at least once. A lot of the New Yorkers insisted that Rigler was giving Albert all the better of it, and J. J. McGraw spoke to "Rig" with and J. J. McGraw spoke to "Rig" with feeling after the tiff was over. "Folks do get pettish in hot weather," he re-

Only once did Mamaux get careless, and that was in the sixth inning, when a ball slip into Kauff's groove and Benny slipped it into the right field stand.

Kauff Hits for Circuit.

The Giants got busy in the sixth and scored three runs. Young doubled to left centre and scored when Fletcher drilled a single through Konetchy. Some of the boys were inclined to score this an error for the Bohemian. Doyle lifted to Wheat, and Kauff atoned for his damaging fumble by hitting against the to wheat and Raun atome to his against the aging fumble by hitting against the upper stand for a home run, Fletcher scoring ahead of him. ROYALS VS. BUSHWICKS.

Brooklyn's two fastest semi-pro teams, the Bushwicks and the Royal Giants, will clash in a double header on Sunday afternoon at Dexter Park, near the Cypress Hills "L". The meeting will be the third of the series for the Brooklyn championship. To date each team has won two games. Two weeks ago Dexter Park fans were treated to two heavy hitting contests when these teams divided a double bill, the Royals taking the first, 9 to 4, but dropping the second, 13 to 8.

Pratt Alone Reaches Second.

The Yankees reached Johnson for seven hits, but Walter made second base a deadline and only one New Yorker succeeded in getting as far as the keystone sack. The Yankee who did succeed in reaching the half-way post was Derrill Pratt, who doubled with two down in the fourth and was marconed when Judge made a corking catch of Bodie's foul fly to the right field

After the fatal first inning Shore twirled superbly and was backed up with a stonewall defence. Peckinpaugh repeatedly thrilled the fans with sensational stops and throws. Even Gen. March rose to applaud Peckinpaugh for Roger's wonderful play on Shanks in the fourth inning, which choked off a prospective Washington run. Totals 21 1 5 27 13 4

Great Stop by Peckinpaugh.

Rich launched the Senators off in the fourth with a three base blow to the score board. He stuck to third when Gharrity popped to Shore and Murphy Shanks pasted a hot grounder toward second. Peckinpaugh with lightning speed glided over to the bag and with a desperate lunge shoved his gloved hand in the way of the ball, whirled completely around and nailed Shanks at first with a rifle bullet throw and throw out on Shanks in the sixth frame and robbed Leonard of an apparent hit with a brilliant play in the seventh. Washington filled the bases with two down in the fifth, but Rice lined directly into Pipp's hands. The Great Walter Makes Second H. P. Whitney's Filly Runs and a hit by Hornsby saved the Car-Five Furlongs at Aqueduct in 1:57 4-5,

By HENRY V. KING.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—Just as a lone run scored in the opening inning by the Yankees in Tuesday's game gave them a 1 to 0 victory over Washington so did a lone tally registered in the first frame by Washington enable Walter Johnson to kalsomine the American Leaguers from the Big Town here to-day. Judge, first to face Ernis Shore, doubled to the right field wall, went to third on Leonard's sacrifice and came home with the triumphant tally on Milan's sacrifice fly to Bodie. After that runs were the triumphant tally on Milan's sacrifice if y to Bodie. After that runs were scarcer than hens' teeth.

Gen. Peyton C. March—himself no mean bail player in his college days at Lehigh—and his staff attended the game. Gen. March did not arrive until the third inning, too late to see the scoring of the lone run, but in time to see Roger Peckinpaugh send a clean single to left and stretch the 1919 consecutive games hitting record to twenty.

Leading Star, the three-year-old son of Sweep, belonging to James Fitzsimons, proved yesterday that he is all his owner said he was last year—a real good colt. He won the Africander Handicap from a high class field in easy Handicap from a high class field in easy fashion. He stepped over the six furlong route in the remarkably fast time of 1:11 2-5, and at the judges he was a length and a haif in front of Willis evening up. The score: harp Kilmer's My Friend. George W. Loft's Rodgers was third.

Branded a "Moring Glory."

All last season Mr. Fitzsimmons pre-licted great things for the colt. His morning trials were so fast and impressive that his owner was confident he would win every time he started. But in his races in the afternoon he showed speed only in spots. He was an enigma to the noted trainer, and after an ignominous defeat on the closing day at Empire City track last autumn Mr Fitzsimmons lost all confidence in him and branded him as a "morning glory."

Again this spring Leading Star displayed tremendous speed in his trials, but in his first few races he did exactly as he did last reas reasons. as he did last rear—race well in spots. As a result he didn't even have the backng of his exercise boy when he began icing at Aqueduct.

In his first start at that track he ran an exceptionally fine race and was only beaten a whisker by Andrew Miller's good colf. The Young Cavalier. In his next start he ran away from a good field, but even that victory did not re-store confidence in him and yesterday e went to the post practically unbacked But after he came tearing nown the inth with the part of the came tearing nown the philadelphia (N.) His collarbone was fractured and he was sent to the hospital. The horse was only stunned. At the very next jump Mile, Maxime vent down and threw Jockey Ken-edy. her for the jumps. After Commander J. K. L. Ross's 1 Smite won the first race from a cheap Burns bunch of youngsters Lewis Garth Kauff claimed her for $3,250.

Just before the Miss Woodford Handi- Chas cap George D. Widener sold Rose D'or Toner to E. F. Whitney. The price was not Zimmer.

DEXTER PARK GAMES TO-DA Patrons of Dexter Park, near ti Cypress Hills "L," will be treated two fast ball games this afternoon, who two fast ball games this afternoon, whe the Lincoln Glants and the Royal Giant clash in the third of their series of double headers. STEARNS IS WINNER

AT SHACKAMAXON

Nassau Star Leads Golfers in Invitation Tournament

Country Club rather monopolised honors Country Club to-day. John N. Stearns Jr., and Gardiner White of the Glen Gove Club, took first and second place in the qualifying round rather easily. Stearns negotiated the eighteen holes in 76, while White landed second place with an 82.

The combination of extreme warm weather and the lure of other activities for the Fourth worked too strongly against the attractions of this first effort of Shackamaxon in the way of an in-vitation affair. With everything in first class chape, it had been anticipaed that class shape, it had been anticipaed that some fifty or sixty players would be on hand for the qualifying round. Instead, just sixteen took a turn at the course. Stearns was the only entrant to get going in really high class form. His same generally was good and his approaching and putting were well nigh flawless. He went out in 37 and came back with 39 for his total of 76, which is four strokes over par. four strokes over par. His card follows:

late, it was due to the players and not to the tournament committee. Inciden-tally, although it was dark during the playing of the last few games of their match, Bassford had been outplaying Robinson for some time and seemed well
